The diagram is a tournament bracket for the 2017-2018 Gator Bowl. It features 8 teams, numbered #1 through #8, competing in a single-elimination format. The bracket is structured as follows:

- Teams #1 and #2 compete in the first round, with the winner advancing to match #9.
- Teams #3 and #4 compete in the first round, with the winner advancing to match #10.
- Teams #5 and #6 compete in the first round, with the winner advancing to match #11.
- Teams #7 and #8 compete in the first round, with the winner advancing to match #12.
- In the second round, the winners of the first round matches compete: #9 vs #10 (winner #13) and #11 vs #12 (winner #14).
- The final match is between #13 and #14.
- The winner of the final match is designated as the Champion, and the loser is designated as the Runner-Up.

The Gator Bowl logo is located in the top right corner of the diagram.

The diagram illustrates a tournament bracket for 16 losers, organized into four groups of four. The progression is as follows:

- Group 1 (Top): Loser #1, #2, #3, #4. First round winners are #16, #17, #18, #19. Second round winners are #24, #25. Third round winner is #28, leading to 3rd Place.
- Group 2 (Second): Loser #5, #6, #7, #8. First round winners are #20, #21, #22, #23. Second round winners are #26, #27. Third round winner is #28, leading to 4th Place.
- Group 3 (Third): Loser #9, #10, #11, #12. First round winners are #24, #25. Second round winners are #26, #27. Third round winner is #28, leading to 3rd Place.
- Group 4 (Bottom): Loser #13, #14, #15, #16. First round winners are #20, #21, #22, #23. Second round winners are #26, #27. Third round winner is #28, leading to 4th Place.

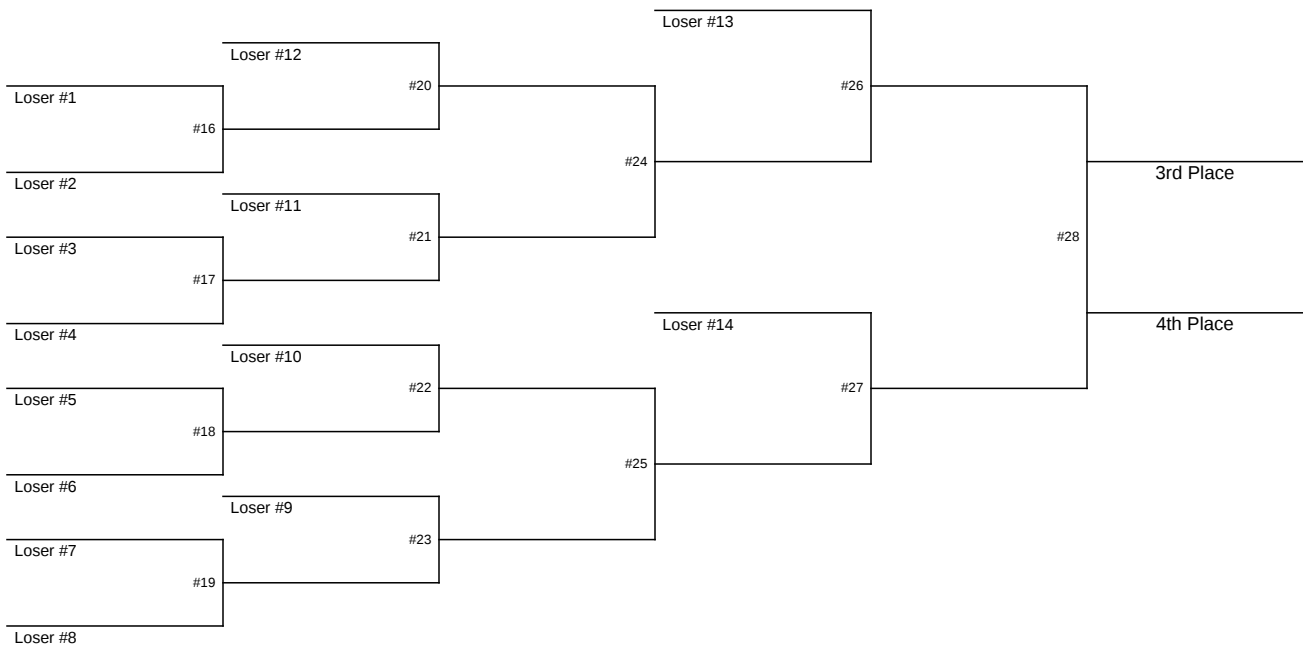

The final outcome is that the winner of the third round (Loser #28) advances to the 3rd Place position, while the loser of the third round (Loser #29) advances to the 4th Place position.
